Oh, and in the logs I noticed the POST Parameters contain the selected project id numerically but the one of the project displayed before hitting new issue in slug-form at the end.

#2 - 2022-04-22 14:39 - Matthias Hörmann

The Parameter issue with project_id appearing twice also seems to affect the POST to /projects/.../issues/new.js which is presumably what updates the form.

There it also seems to load the default tracker in

```
D, [2022-04-22T12:48:08.556037 #26315] DEBUG -- : [apache-198-1650624488532543] Tracker Load (0.4ms) SELECT `trackers`.* FROM `trackers` INNER JOIN `projects_trackers` ON `trackers`.`id` = `projects_trackers`.`tracker_id` WHERE `projects_trackers`.`project_id` = 92 ORDER BY `trackers`.`position` ASC LIMIT 1

(id 92 is the one for specified in the request via the slug, not the numeric one that was selected in the input field). There is no tracker/tracker_id in the parameters.

This problem still occurs with 5.0.2 and is frequently "exploited" by our customers.

#4 - 2022-12-13 11:04 - Dimitar (RedmineUP)

Hi Matthias,

This is Dimitar from the RedmineUP Support Team.

I see that you have some of our plugins on your list:

redmine_agile	1.6.2
redmine_checklists	3.1.20

So, could you please contact our support team at support@redmineup.com? And our support engineers will help you investigate the situation.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best Regards,
Dimitar from the RedmineUP Support Team
