| Description | | | |
| This actually affects 4.2.9 but didn't see 4.2.9 on the list. | | | |
| When looking at issues in the Issues view in a parent project, using the context menu to make changes redirects to the subproject instead of back to the parent view. The url that is passed seems to be correct. | | | |

#1 - 2023-06-22 13:01 - Dimitar RedmineUP

Dear John,

This is Dimitar from RedmineUP Support here.

I can see you have redmine_agile 1.6.1 installed. So it could be possible that our plugin is involved in the reported problem. Please get in touch with us at support@redmineup.com so we can investigate this problem deeper.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best Regards,

Dimitar from the RedmineUP Support Team
