

Redmine - Defect #38618

it seems to be sorted by issue number instead of parent issue number. After that, setting the sort order has no effect at custom query

Description

At custom query
I can set parent issue

Apparently, it seems to be sorted by issue number instead of parent issue number.
After that, setting the sort order has no effect

for example,
Even if the parent issue and start date are Sorted by issue number, start date sort order doesn't work

please fix

--jp start--

--JP end--
```
