Description

The reasons for not supporting JRuby given on RedmineInstall are outdated and now incorrect. It currently states:

> Redmine does not support JRuby because activerecord-jdbc-adapter and loofah do not support Rails 4.2 or later.

Yet, both activerecord-jdbc-adapter and loofah are currently compatible with Rails up to and including 7.1 and JRuby:

- activerecord-jdbc-adapter >= 71.x added Rails 7.1 support;
- loofah >= 2.21.0 added official support for JRuby.
