Description
Is it possible to add a member filter on the timelog details view to be able to retrieve time entries for a specific user? Use cases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- a custom field was added to time tracking and users need to specify it on existing entries.</li><li>- user wants to check his entries to assign issues or modify something if needed.</li></ul>

Is there any news on this? This would be a nice feature for time tracking reporting.

Thanks
