Description

So far, the problem only happens when running with "RAILS_ENV=development".
I get the following stack while deleting a priority still assigned to at least one issue:

Fixed: error while deleting an in-use enumeration (#4970).

Fixed in r3524.

It was raised when running test/functional/enumerations_controller.rb but not when running all functional tests with rake test:functionals. Very strange... Anyway, the code was firing a deprecation warning, so it has to be fixed.
Thanks for pointing it out.
