Redmine - Defect #5695

Problem with assignable users in the report page

Description

In the report page, the assignable list shows all members of the project.
I think it's not right because non assignable members are also shown.

I made modifications on the reports-controller and it seems to work fine.

Take a look on the attached file.

Modification details

Line 52

From:

@rows = @project.members.collect { |m| m.user }.sort

To:

@rows = @project.assignable_users

Line 73

From:
@assignees = @project.members.collect { |m| m.user }.sort

To:

@assignees = @project.members.select {|m| m.roles.detect {|role| role.assignable?}}.collect {|m| m
.user}.sort

I'm a french beginner in ruby's development, so I don't know if it's a good solution.

For me every thing seems to be right (Redmine 2.3). When you add user to the filter on the report page all users that spent some time to that project will be shown. Does anybody regret?

hi Daniel,

I am getting the same problem, too.

I have 02 roles: Send requests and Helpdesks. And issues can not be assigned to this role "Send requests". But when I use Issues Summary (Report), the assignees show all project members, not just only assignable users. See screenshots attached.

Since the author attached a patched version of reports_controller.rb, I believe that the original author was talking about the Summary page of issues (/projects/[identifier]/issues/report), not the report tab in the spent time page.

And this issue seems a duplicate of #6023. Closing.
