Description

When a user updates a ticket, but fails to select a piece of required info (e.g. "activity"), Redmine loses the list of files attached to a ticket along with all of the form data.

steps to reproduce:

1. create a ticket.
2. add some stuff under log time w/o selecting an activity.
3. add a file.
4. submit.

result:
The ticket loses all of its attached files.
