Revert "Make an issue's done_ratio field adjustable from the right-click"

Reverts commit r1277
fixes #904
refs #641

This had been working for me in testing for some time, but received issue #904 saying it broke the context menu. I was able to make it do so on a new project as well. Will revert and comment in #641 about this.

Closes #904 (back_to variable used in patch #641 and in r1277 is no longer defined).

Removed from SVN trunk. Bug #904 mentioned that it broke the popup menu and I was able to duplicate this. Dov, can you prepare a new patch that works against trunk?

I just saw that jplang fixed this in commit r1279 . I guess this issue can be closed now...
