Resolution:
Description On the roadmap, tickets associated with the version are displayed directly under the wiki content, and therefore seem to be part of it. It would be better to visually separate it somehow, maybe by giving it a heading like "Associated Tickets"

Revision 1168 - 2008-02-21 20:49 - Jean-Philippe Lang

Roadmap enhancements (closes #697, #698):

- separate related issues from wiki contents
- leading h1 in version wiki pages is hidden (done using css, won't work with IE6)
- smaller wiki headings
- xhtml validation
