History

#1 - 2011-03-05 22:49 - Ladislav Nesnera

If I get email notification the structure is little bit different than I wrote above - [Project Name - Forum Name - msg#]. When I replied all worked as I expected. I tried to send email with msg Number higher then the latest but with the same wrong result as above

- Status changed from New to Closed

- Resolution set to Invalid

#1616 patch is not up to date to latest stable and has not been incorporated into redmine core, thus redmine does not yet support creating forum threads via emails, you should post in #1616.
