Description
When I press the "pencil" icon for editing an issue comment, I get a mere plain-text editing box with no formatting tools at all.

Expected: the editing box should open with a regular rich-text formatting toolbar, like the one used when you create/update an issue.

Very nice addition, indeed.

Just added the relation to #5520 : adding a preview capacity to comment editing would make it perfect, actually :p

Preview support added in r5246.
