

Redmine - Defect #793

Subproject issues on the parent project clutter the interface

Target version:		Affected version:
Resolution:	Fixed
Description As of r1178 all the issues on subprojects now appear on the parent project. This behavior made my parent project cluttered and completely wiped out my issue organization. If this feature is really needed, can there be an option to turn it off: "Display sub project issues on parent"

That would be perfect.

#3 - 2008-03-06 09:32 - Jean-Philippe Lang

- Status changed from New to Closed

- Resolution set to Fixed

The setting is added in r1198. You'll find it in admin -> settings -> issue tracking.
