Description I now that projects are ordered on the Projects view page by creation date, but can a pull down be added to allow for sorting by Name instead? Thanks.

This feature looks good. However, will it interfere with the projects_tree_view plugin. This plugin shows the projects in a collapsable tree? May be that plugin should take precedence and disable pull-down list and sorting.

At least, is it possible to let us choose display order of top levels projects ?
