

Redmine - Patch #896

Change icon of issue selection toggle

Description

The edit icon used to toggle the (de)selection of issues on the issue list is misleading.

I have attached a checkbox icon to replace the edit icon.

(I'm sure there has already been an issue or forum entry regarding this topic but unfortunately I can't find it.)

- Target version set to 0.7

Didn't see your ticket but I've just replaced the pencil by a small tick a few minutes ago (in r1276) :-)
