Description

I wrote some help to contribute back to the Redmine project, now at http://docs.redmight.com/projects/docs/wiki

If it can't be attached to the default help (which I'm guessing it can't because of security issues with the CSS), can it at least be linked from http://www.redmine.org/guide ?

Cheers,
jh

Thanks for bringing this up again jon. It's already discussed at issue #7284, thus I close this issue as Duplicate.

Note: I'll see what I can do for #7284; I'll assign the issue to myself...
