Description

I have reviewed:

- <http://www.redmine.org/issues/7630>
- <http://www.redmine.org/issues/4155>

The repository commits are associating with the correct issue, but the time tracking isn't applied.

- There's an active time activity for the settings/repository.
- My email address was changed to exactly match the email used in my redmine account
 - you can confirm this is right in a screenshot of the dashboard it shows as a commit by me

Do you map Redmine user and SCM commit user?

Do you assign Redmine user to project?

#4 - 2011-10-10 04:48 - alan blount

Sorry I don't think so. The email addresses are exactly the same, but I have not setup any sort of User Mapping.

I just looked it up and the wiki information on it is "TODO":

<http://www.redmine.org/projects/redmine/wiki/RedmineRepositories#Repository-user-mapping>

Would you like to educate me?

Excellent - thanks - I have updated the wiki.

I have made the mappings on my project.

I'll be experimentating today and will update this ticket accordingly.
