Description I have something like the following in a Wiki Page: h2. ABC # Item in numbered list. h2. DEF Some Text. The spacing between the end of the numbered list and the next heading ("DEF") is missing. Compare it by replacing the "#" with a " ". This changed since 1.0.4, though I can't find a problem in the application.css file. It's a minor problem, but it makes our documentation look a squished. Also, I'm not sure if this is a global problem. Version: 1.3.0 Browser: Chrome 15.0.874.121

I don't really know why it changed but r8258 should fix it. Category changed to Text formatting since it affects any formatted text (not wiki pages only).
